

Table of Contents

	pag.
Abbreviations	IX
Editorial	XV

Part I

INTERPRETATIVE CATEGORIES: A MULTI-DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVE

Well-being and Work
Tindara Addabbo	3
Well-being at Work: a Few Considerations Under a Legal Perspective
Loïc Lerouge	15
Innovative Approaches to Work Organizations and their Implications on Well-being. What Trends? What Opportunities? What Challenges?
Teresina Torre	33
What's Still Important about Work? A Longitudinal and Cross-country Analysis of Prevalent Attitudes towards Work During the Last 40 Years
Roberto Albano, Tania Parisi	55

Part IIIMPLEMENTATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

Incentives on Workplace Health and Safety through Social Security Contributions: Bonus-Bonus and Bonus-Malus Schemes in Spain Anna Ginès i Fabrellas, Manuel Luque Parra, Raquel Serrano Olivares	99
Occupational Safety and Health Laws in China: Towards an Integrated Framework? Mimi Zou	121
Access to Employment by People with Disabilities. A Critical Reading of the Italian Legal Provisions Roberto Albano, Eleonora Balocchi, Ylenia Curzi, Paola Maria Torriani	143
Health and Safety from a Gender Viewpoint: Problems, Perspectives and the Role of Collective Bargaining Maria Dolores Ferrara, Roberta Nunin	181

PART IIIWORK ORGANIZATION,
WORKING TIME AND WORK-RELATED STRESS

Recent Legislative Advances on Working Time: the Portuguese Regime Ana Teresa Ribeiro	201
Sustainable Work, Work-Life Balance and Flexible Working Time Carla Spinelli	221
Is Smart Working a Win-Win Solution? First Evidence from the Field Daria Sarti, Teresina Torre	231

	pag.
Work-related Stress: Different Techniques to Compare Measures and Determinants Tindara Addabbo, Stefania Capecchi, Domenico Piccolo, Elena Sarti	255
Using Multiple – Methods Approach to Tackle Stress and Promote Well-being at Work. Evidence From a Study in a Subcontracting Company Ylenia Curzi, Tommaso Fabbri, Christian Nardella	279
Part-time Work with Part-time Retirement. Towards an Alliance Between Labour Law and Pensions for the Healthy Ageing of the Workforce? Miriam Kullmann, Marco Rocca	319
Notes on Contributors	339