

Index

Presentation	pag. IX
---------------------	-------------------

Chapter 1 Transparency between Banks and Customers by Antonio Proto

1.1. The Activities of Banks	1
1.2. Banking Transparency	2
1.3. Public notice and Pre-contractual Information	5
1.4. Contracts	8
1.5. Unilateral Amendment to Contracts	10
1.6. Communication with Clients	11
1.7. Ways of Calculating Interest	13
1.8. Complaint Management	14
References	16

Chapter 2 Current Accounts as a Tool for Bank and Customer Relationships Management by Antonio Proto

2.1. Definition and Operational Characteristics	17
2.2. Economic Profile	19
2.3. Financial Profile	20
2.4. The functioning of current accounts and convenience evaluation	23
References	28

Chapter 3

The lending process

by Elisa Cavezzali

3.1. Credits: an Introduction	29
3.1.1. Types of Credit	30
3.1.2. Credit Limits	31
3.2. The Consumer Lending Process	32
3.2.1. Stages of Loan Report: Origination and Managing Loan	32
3.2.2. Assessing Creditworthiness	34
3.2.2.1. Premise	34
3.2.2.2. Qualitative Analysis: an Overview	35
3.2.2.3. Collection and Verification of Formal Documentation	36
3.2.2.4. Quantitative Analysis	37
3.2.2.4.1. Stock-taking Analyses	37
3.2.2.4.2. Forecast Analysis	41
3.2.3. The Role of Securities in the Lending Process	42
3.3. Managing Credit Granted	46
3.3.1. Monitoring and Periodic Credit Reviews	46
3.3.2. Central Credit Register	47
3.4. Loan Recovery Process	49
3.4.1. Non-performing Loans	49
3.4.2. Repayment and Recovery Process	52
References	53

Chapter 4

Lending Transactions

by Maurizio Polato

4.1. Premise	55
4.2. Ordinary credit for business	56
4.2.1. The financial requirement of companies: a basic reference framework	56
4.2.2. Types of working capital financing through cash loans	57
4.2.3. Types of investment financing through cash loans	77
4.2.4. Signature loans	84
4.3. Consumer credit	85
4.4. Special loans	90
4.5. Subsidized loans: an overview	92
References	94

Chapter 5
Deposit Transactions
 by Francesco Zen

5.1. Overview of Savings Collection among the Public	97
5.2. Classifying Bank Savings Collection	98
5.3. Collecting Savings using Deposit Agreements and Other Legal Transactions	100
5.3.1. Savings deposits	102
5.3.2. Deposits Regulated in Current Accounts and Correspondent Accounts	104
5.3.3. Repurchase Agreements	106
5.4. Savings Collection Through Financial Instruments	108
5.4.1. Certificates of Deposit and Savings Bonds	109
5.4.2. Bonds	112
5.4.3. Covered Bonds	116
5.4.4. Other Securities	119
5.5. Bail-in and Safeguarding Bank Savings	119
References	121

Chapter 6
Payment Services
 by Cinzia Baldan

6.1. Introductory Concepts: Definition and Classification of Means of Payment	123
6.2. Payment Services Regulations (PSD2 – Open Banking)	125
6.2.1. The Portability of Payment Services	126
6.2.2. Payment Services within the Internal Market	127
6.3. Collection and Payment Services	128
6.3.1. Banker's Drafts	129
6.3.2. Cheques	130
6.4. SEPA Payment Tools	131
6.4.1. Payment Cards	132
6.4.2. SEPA Credit Transfers	134
6.4.3. SEPA Direct Debit	135
6.5. Commercial Credit Regulation Services	136
6.6. Electronic Money and Telecommunication Services	138
References	140

Chapter 7
Investment Services
by Ugo Rigoni

Introduction	141
7.1. Analytical Overview	143
7.2. Legal Framework	144
7.3. Identifying Investment Services	145
7.4. The Economic Function of Investment Services	146
7.5. Providing Investment Services	148
7.5.1. Legal Framework	148
7.5.2. The Economic Perspective	150
7.6. Investment Portfolio Managing	152
7.6.1. Getting to Know the Client	152
7.6.1.1. Data Collection	152
7.6.1.2. Identifying Needs, Obligations and Preferences	153
7.6.2. Managing Client Expectations	154
7.6.3. Selecting and Building a Portfolio	156
7.6.3.1. Strategic Asset Allocation	156
7.6.3.2. Tactical Asset Allocation	156
7.6.3.3. Performance Measurement	157
References	160

Chapter 8
Insurance services
by Stefano Miani

8.1. Premise	163
8.2. Matching an Insurance Product to Banking Products	167
8.2.1. Covering Collateral	168
8.2.2. Repaying Loans	168
8.3. Independent Sale of Insurance Products	170
8.3.1. Life Insurance Products	170
8.3.2. Non-life Insurance Products	174
8.4. Independent Sale of Pension Products	175
References	176