

Contents

	page
Introduction	1
Chapter 1
The applicable substantive and procedural law	15
1.1. Introduction	17
1.2. Cross guarantees	24
1.3. Setoff	27
1.4. Cash pooling arrangements and close-out netting provisions	29
1.5. The inhomogeneous array of restructuring tools under national law	35
1.6. The EU legislative trends	46
1.7. Does the 2015 Regulation solve all problems? The possible conflict between ‘group proceedings’ and third-party rights	53
Chapter 2
The conflict between group proceedings and national provision	75
2.1. Introduction	77
2.2. The main scenarios where a conflict with national provisions may arise	83
2.2.1. The subjective perimeter of “coordinated restructuring plans”	87
2.2.1.1. The possibility to extend coordinated restructuring plans to solvent affiliates	91

	page
2.2.1.2. The extension of the effects of the coordinated restructuring plans to insolvent affiliates	92
2.2.2. Affiliates' right to claim liabilities of the parent company	95
2.2.3. Minority shareholders' statutory withdrawal rights	109
2.2.4. Disclosure duties; information asymmetries	113
2.2.4.1. Information discrepancies between the insolvency practitioners participating to the group plan (one the one hand) and non-adhering insolvency practitioners (on the other)	114
2.2.4.2. Information asymmetries among the insolvency practitioners participating to the group plan	115
2.2.5. Reimbursement of shareholders' loans; enforcement of intra-group guarantees	117
2.2.6. The principle of ' par condicio creditorum '; the possibility to envisage brand-new priority rights	123
2.2.6.1. Secured creditors	127
2.2.6.2. Preferred creditors	128
2.2.7. Group proceedings and transfer of branches of business	129
2.2.8. The request of stay of the realisation of assets	131
2.2.9. The possibility to grant "additional powers" to practitioners	138