

INDICE

pag.

INTRODUCTION

XIII

Luca Pantaleo and Marco Siddi

INTEGRAZIONE DEI/LLE MIGRANTI E STATO DI DIRITTO

Angela Taraborrelli

1. Il modello di integrazione civica dei migranti	1
2. Il modello di integrazione civica in Italia: l'“Accordo di integrazione”	3
3. L'Accordo di integrazione e lo stato di diritto: l'aderenza al diritto della Ue	5
3.1. Il concetto di “integrazione” in Italia	6
3.2. Le conoscenze richieste	7
3.3. La Carta dei valori della cittadinanza e dell'integrazione	10
3. L'Accordo di integrazione e lo stato di diritto: il principio di non discriminazione	16
4. Osservazioni conclusive	20
Riferimenti bibliografici	24

DEMOCRATIC BACKSLIDING IN THE EUROPEAN UNION

Marco Siddi and Barbara Gaweda

1. Introduction	27
2. Conceptualising the crisis of democracy: illiberalism, populism, unpoltics and democratic backsliding	28
3. Case studies of democratic backsliding	32
4. Hungary, the EU's “Frankenstate”	33
5. Poland, the former “poster child” of democratization	35
6. Democratic backsliding à la italienne	39
7. Concluding remarks: more democratic backsliding in the EU?	41
Bibliography	43

A CRUMBLING “CORDON SANITAIRE”: THE RISE AND NORMALISATION OF FAR-RIGHT PARTIES AT THE EUROPEAN UNION LEVEL

Manuel Müller

1. The far right at the European level	49
2. European Parliament: The EPP’s openness to the right	52
3. European Commission: Few far-right commissioners – but a vice-president	56
4. Council: Shying away from confrontation	57
5. Conclusion: EU consensualism gradually normalising the far right	59
Bibliography	60

THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE WAR OF AGGRESSION IN UKRAINE: AN INSPIRING SOLIDARITY IN THE FIELD OF DEFENCE?

Anne Hamonic

1. Introduction – Solidarity, a possible inspiration for the rule of law	63
2. A new test of solidarity triggered by the war of aggression in Ukraine, in the specific field of defence	66
2.1. The multifaceted nature of solidarity	66
2.2. The specific features of defence in EU law	69
2.3. The inevitable acceleration of solidarity in the face of the war in Ukraine	71
3. Solidarity in support of Ukraine, a source of innovation in military matters within the framework of the Union’s external action	72
3.1. A bold use of CFSP instruments to demonstrate the Union’s solidarity with Ukraine	72
3.1.1. Operational solidarity facilitated by the “delocalisation” of EUMAM Ukraine	72
3.1.2. A financial solidarity supported by a constructive use of the European Peace Facility (EPF)	74
3.2. Effective intergovernmental cooperation demonstrating the solidarity between Member States	76
3.2.1. A decision-making process doubly marked by solidarity between Member States	77
3.2.2. Instruments strengthening financial solidarity between Member States	79

pag.

4. Solidarity for the strategic autonomy of the Union, a vector for the development of the military capabilities through internal policies	81
4.1. An accelerated mobilisation of internal policies to enhance solidarity within the Union in a context of emergency	82
4.1.1. The proliferation of instruments promoting cooperation in the development of defence capabilities	82
4.1.2. The trivialisation of the Community method in the field of defence	85
4.2. The challenge of long-term solidarity in the field of defence	87
4.2.1. For greater convergence between the EU institutions	87
4.2.2. For an ambitious comprehensive and integrated approach	91
5. Concluding remarks	94

THE EU'S CONTRIBUTION TO UKRAINE'S RECONSTRUCTION:
THE LEGALITY OF THE WINDFALL TAX ON THE EXTRAORDINARY REVENUE GENERATED BY THE IMMOBILISED ASSETS AND RESERVES OF THE RUSSIAN CENTRAL BANK

Sara Poli

1. Introduction	97
2. The Ukraine Facility and the possibility to use the revenues generated by the immobilised assets and reserves of the Central Bank of Russia	99
3. Supporting Ukraine's reconstruction: different legal options and their limits	101
4. The legislative choices made by Canada and the United States on Ukraine's reconstruction: an overview	104
5. The EU's windfall tax on the extraordinary revenues generated by the immobilized assets of Central Bank of Russia as an instrument to support Ukraine's self defence, recovery and reconstruction	106
6. An assessment of the EU's windfall tax: a legal but limited instrument to ensure Ukraine's reconstruction in line with the international rule of law	109
7. The EU and G7 countries' contributions to Ukraine's reconstruction: a coordinated effort through the Ukraine Loan Cooperation Mechanism	111
8. Conclusions	112

THE JUDICIALISATION OF (INTERNATIONAL) POLITICS:
THE CONTRIBUTION OF THE EU TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL RULE OF LAW IN LIGHT OF THE WAR IN UKRAINE

Luca Pantaleo and Beatrice Sanna

1. Introduction	115
2. What is the judicialization of politics, and how it applies in the international context	116
3. The judicialization of politics in the context of the Russian war of aggression in Ukraine	120
4. The judicialiation of the Russian aggression against Ukraine: an appraisal	128
5. The role of the EU: where do we currently stand?	130
6. Concluding remarks	131

RULE OF LAW BACKSLIDING IN EUROPA: RIFLESSI
NELLA SFERA DELLA BIOPOLITICA E DEL BIODIRITTO

Alessandra Pisu

1. Diritti fondamentali, Stato di diritto e democrazia	133
2. Rule of law backsliding in Europa e crisi della democrazia in Italia: chi decide sul corpo umano?	137
3. L'attacco globale ai diritti riproduttivi: la questione dell'aborto	141
3.1. Segue. Genitorialità delle minoranze LGBTI+ e status filiationis dei nati da tecniche "controverse" di procreazione medicalmente assistita	147
4. Il diritto all'autodeterminazione nel fine vita: il caso dell'ungherese Karsai alla Corte Edu e gli ultimi approdi della Corte costituzionale italiana	155
5. Conclusioni	161

TECHNOLOGICAL REVOLUTION, DEMOCRATIC CRISIS,
AND NEW FORMS OF PARTICIPATION

Massimo Farina

1. Challenges and opportunities for democracy in the digital age: a brief introductory overview	163
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

pag.

2. The potential of technology for democratic renewal	167
3. Case studies: successes and failures of democratic technologies	168
3.1. The Estonian model: an example of advanced e-democracy	168
3.2. Iceland and the constitutional revision: a disappointed hope	170
3.3. “Arab Spring”: the ambivalent role of social media in mobilisation and democratisation processes	171
3.4. The German pirate party and “liquid democracy”: limits and criticisms of a digital participatory model	172
3.5. The vTaiwan project: an innovative model of digital participation in Public governance	173
4. The role of the European Union in promoting digital democracy and the rule of law	174
5. Conclusions	177
Bibliography	178

